

LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Copyright August 1995 Jim Robertson

Tempo: 130

Key: G

VERSE 1:

Em A7 D Dsus4 Em | A7 D Dsus4 Em Em
 Four score and sixty miles to go . | . . as the crow flies.
 Who says the invocation? The dedi | cation? The Benedictine?

CHORUS 1:

C C/B C/A C/G Em Em(add9) Em e|-----|
 e|-0-2-3-0-|
 Keep following your Lincoln Highway.
 Keep following the Lincoln Highway.
 Everybody's got a Lincoln Highway.
 Keep following your Lincoln Highway.

VERSE 2:

The planks in your platform are the planks in Paterson and the nails in the coffin of Hamilton.
 From Nashville to Chicago . . . from Harrisburg to Berrigan.

CHORUS 2

BRIDGE:

D C D C

VERSE 3:

What's the score and 95 to go. Don't you go back to Rockville.
 "Continental Sample": a cross to bear, follow your trail in a beaded chair.

CHORUS 3:

Keep following your Lincoln Highway.
 Keep following the Lincoln Highway.
 Everybody's got a Lincoln Highway.
 God-damn your Lincoln Highway.
 Everybody's got one . . .
 Everybody's got one . . .
 Everybody's got one . . .
 Everybody's got one . . .
