CHICKEN SOUP by BRAVE NEW SQUIRREL

Copyright 1985 Anthony Marchese, Jim Robertson, Tom Rosko Tempo: 145 bpm Key: C

```
INTRO:
  C G
  С
         G
VERSE 1:
I should have seen it coming on our very first date.
I couldn't finish all the food on my plate.
An African village, she did declare,
Could live off those veggies for six months to a year.
CHORUS:
F C
           G
                                    F C
Hey girl! You're not my mother. / Hey girl! You're my lover.
Hey girl! What's with the chicken soup?!
VERSE 2:
Came home late, just the other night.
Open the fridge for an eat to bite.
Saw something strange, so I moved the broccoli.
Grabbed a milk carton; on the back was me.
CHORUS 2
VERSE 3:
When I stopped by, she told me she bought /
some protection.
Naturally I assumed it was some form of contra-ception.
Finally I thought my sex life /
complete.
'Til she pulled out some rubbers and she put them on my / feet.
CHORUS 3
VERSE 4:
Feeling kind of sick, but not too down.
'Cause I'm thinking of how nice it is when she's not around.
Knock comes on my door, out of bed I roll.
It's my baby, and she's carrying a bowl.
CHORUS 4
CHORDS IN THIS SONG:
```

С	F	G
=====	=====	=====
1	111111	11111
2	2	1

Last updated: Aug 25, 2012

||34|||

|3|||