

SPACEMAN

Copyright October 1986 Jim Robertson, Anthony Marchese

Tempo: 160 bpm Key: G

VERSE 1:

Am D E Am
He who profits and runs away / lives to profit another day.
But who will stay and clean up the mess? / Who will let be and give it a rest?

LIFT 1:

G Am
Where are you Father?
But I don't want to be good.
Just give me something I can B
see.

VERSE 2:

What we really want is to have our cake / eat it too and then as we make our excuses to full-steam ahead / we all take one step back instead.

LIFT 2

CHORUS 1 (do four times):

Am C G D D
I'm sorry . . . but there ain't no spacemen in the skies!

VERSE 3:

Use it now, don't make it last. / Quick, consume; fast, fast, fast!
There's no thought for the consequence / or a world that's all spent.

LIFT 3

CHORUS 2

BRIDGE:

E E E E

VERSE 4 (solo over)

CHORUS 3

VERSE 5:

And so Isaac, I'm sorry to say / it doesn't look like they'll come back today to give us the cap and give us the stool. / They'll be no lesson 'cause we're not adolescents.

LIFT 4

CHORUS 4

fade out on CHORUS

Last updated: October 23, 1995